of 4-16 people)

Horses, like employees, seek a leader they can trust and respect, a figure who can guide them toward success. Just as you desire exceptional leadership in the workplace, so do your teams.

Effective team development hinges on strong leadership. When your team leaders provide clear guidance you're not just building employees; you're nurturing future leaders who will propel your company forward.

Empower your employees with the essential skills, training, and development required for personal and organizational growth.

Through our immersive experiential program, your participants will learn to:

Adapt to enhance team performance and achieve business objectives Master effective communication to manage diverse teams successfully Recognize the crucial impact of interpersonal communication dynamics.

Your organization deserves great leaders - Unleash the potential of your leadership team with our Workhorse Leadership Training Program!

YOUR NEXT TEAM LEADERSHIP RETREAT OR DEVELOPMENT DAY - JUST 45 MINUTES NORTH OF ATLANTA!

A Workhorse Leadership Training Day Provides Tremendous Benefits:

Improve Team Communication

Team building in general is a great way to improve communication. However, when you are working with a 1,200 pound animal the pressure is truly on! Your team will need to learn to rely on each other to finish the set of challenges successfully,

Strengthen Leadership Skills

Your team will learn the skills needed to be a MORE SUCCESSFUL leader. A workhorse environment can be stressful - and encourages teammates to work together to successfully complete the task on hand. Listening skills and collaboration become a necessary emphasis and translate to more profitable team interactions.

Develop Relationships and Trust

Whether your team members work remotely or in-person, improved internal relationships will help boost your workplace morale, retention, and results. The workhorse

YOUR EVENT FACILITATOR:

Hannah Campbell Zapletal was raised in Haiti with missionary parents and then attended Reinhardt University, where she earned a B.S. in Biology. She founded WildeWood Farm in 1996 and is one of only 75 instructors worldwide who have earned the Monty Robert's Instructor Certificate.

WildeWood Farm provides many valuable experiences, including riding lessons, summer camps, leadership workshops, birthday parties, horse shows, and even weddings.

Hannah is proud to work with nearby schools to host students for FFA and 4H, and created the "Empowering Struggling Youth" program after being certified as an equine facilitator.

She has also served as a veteran's outreach community service provider through the Forsyth County probation, and supports local families through her nonprofit organization, The Mane Event Equine Therapy, inc., which is also part of WildeWood Farm.

Hannah is married and mother to three lively children. Her hobbies include writing children's stories, acting, reading, travelling, and playing the cello, piano, violin, and guitar – when she is not busy showing and training her beloved horse Simon.
